In collaboration with Palais Bahia, Dutch-Moroccan textile designer Mina Abouzahra opens her latest exhibition The Soul of a Rug.

The exhibition was inaugurated during the 2025 edition of the 1-54 Contemporary African Art Fair Marrakech (Jan. 30-Feb. 2) and is on view through May 31, 2025.

The experience transports the audience to the life of the women of Taznakht, exploring the artistry and socio-economic challenges they face. At its core, The Soul of a Rug celebrates ancient crafts-woman-ship, cultural preservation, and female empowerment.

Mina Abouzahra

Dutch-Moroccan designer, artist, and furniture maker with a deep interest in the Moroccan weaving craft and its talented female artisans. Abouzahra's motivations and ambitions are dedicated to building bridges between diverse worlds: Netherlands & Morocco, craft & design, tradition & innovation, past & present, and - in the context of this project - traditional craftsmanship & modern technology. Abouzahra's work has been showcased and bought by museums such as Centraal Museum Utrecht, Amsterdam Museum, Palai Bahia, Het Nieuwe Instituut and COBRA and more. Since 2023 she has been represented by the renowned Rademakers Gallery.
